Professor María Gutiérrez Urtiaga, as Academic Coordinator for the Diploma and Master in Banking Supervision, certifies that:

Mr. Borja Petit served satisfactorily as teaching assistant for the course "Statistics" of the Diploma in Banking Supervision 2018 (21 hours) and the Master in Banking Supervision 2017 (30 hours), which were taught by Professor Enrique Moral in May 2018, and in September 2017.

The Diploma and Master in Banking Supervision are full-time programs designed to provide the new supervisors joining the Bank of Spain with up-to date knowledge and practical tools needed to develop their careers in the Bank and also in the international organizations in which the Bank participates, in particular the Single Supervisory Mechanism of the European Central Bank. The Diploma is organized in one 10-week term and the Master, in two 10-week terms. Both programs are taught in English and Spanish, with approximately one third of classes taught in English.
